

First Annual Sisterhood Symposium, 2006 Women's Spa Getaway Announced

Chicago, IL (BlackNews.com) - The 1st Annual Sisterhood Symposium, 2006 Women's Spa Getaway produced by Creneau Marketing & Event Management, Inc. (Creneau ME) has been scheduled for this August. This event will take place at the Hyatt Tamaya Resort & Spa, Santa Ana Pueblo, NM, August 24-27, 2006.

Sisterhood Symposium Founder, Karen D. Haggerty, created this girlfriend's getaway designed with the busy career woman in mind. "This exciting four-day personal development and wellness conference was developed especially to enhance the lifestyle of today's woman and addresses the unique challenges of balancing career, family and connecting with friends and self. Women will take a holistic journey to connect their mind, body and spirit," proclaimed Haggerty.

In addition, the women interested in ME time will enjoy not only the seminars, but spa treatments, golf, hiking, horseback riding, hot air balloon rides, shopping excursions and historical tours.

The Hyatt Tamaya Resort & Spa is one of the proud sponsors. And among the featured speakers will be New York Times Best-selling Author, Kimberla Lawson Roby, who has written seven novels, which include, Changing Faces and The Best-Kept Secret; Motivational/Inspirational Speaker, and Founder of Women on the Grow, Jewel Diamond Taylor; and Dating & Relationship Coach and Author of Relating E-Zine, Yvonne Chase.

Other programs and workshops during Sisterhood Symposium will include: relaxation, reconnection with self and friends as well as rejuvenation.

For more information about this event and for registration, visit www.sisterhoodsymposium.com

CONTACT:

Karen Haggerty
Creneau Marketing & Event Management Inc.
312-520-3017

khaggerty@creneaume.com